2007- passage 1

31. Beauty contests in Britain are now _____ .

A. bringing huge benefits for the country

B. as popular as the World Cup Final

C. no longer popular in the country

D. widely protested in the country

原文

① They may be one of Britain's most successful exports and among the world's most popular TV shows, ranking alongside the World Cup Final and the Olympic Games opening ceremony in terms of audience. But, in Britain, beauty competitions are unfashionable. To most people, beauty contests seem as out-dated as bowing. Nicolas Baker, a lawyer in London, said that "As much as I think it's fine for women to do it. I don't think it's interesting and in fact, I think they're irrelevant to today". Last year, Miss World was broadcast to 142 countries, but it wasn't even shown in this country where it started in 1951.

例题 3

2009- passage 2

37. One of the reasons for not studying a foreign language in the past is _____ .

A. it was too difficult

B. it was not allowed

C. it was seen as disloyalty

D. it was taught by foreign rulers

2009- passage 2

About a century ago more people would not have appreciated the study of a foreign language as they do today. Gone are those days when patriotism towards one's own language was major obstacle to learning foreign languages, a time when most nations were trying to throw their alien rulers out of their countries in their freedom struggles. Gone are those days when people were proud of their mother or father tongues and considered that their native languages alone will suffice the need to survive. Language skills today have become as important as other business and career skills like IT, vocational or professional skills. Thus learning a foreign language today has become essential for an individual whether it is for careers, growing a business, or even to make an impression.

新东方在线 www.koolearn.com 网络课堂电子教材系列

A. Survival of Plants B. Plant World

①We tend to think of plants as the furniture of the natural world. They don't move, they don't make sounds, they don't seem to respond to anything—at least not very quickly. But as is often the case, our human view of the world misses quite a lot. Plants talk to each other all the time. And the language is chemical.

②Over the years scientists have reported that different types of plants, from trees to tomatoes, release compounds into the air to help neighboring plants.

③In this week's Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, researchers in Japan offer some explanations.

④The scientists looked at tomato plants infested (侵害) by common pest, the cutworm caterpillar (毛虫) .

⑤The results showed that plants that had previously been near sick neighbors were able to defend themselves better against the caterpillar.

37. The word "compartmentalize" in the first paragraph means " _____ ".

A. separate in categories B. treat differently

C. evaluate accordingly D. judge fairly

原文

A particular area in which assumptions and values differ between cultures is that of friendship. Friendships among Americans tend to be shorter and less intense than those among people from many other cultures. At least many observers from abroad have this impression. Because Americans are taught to be self-reliant, because they live in a very mobile society, and for many other reasons as well, they tend to avoid deep involvement with other people. Furthermore, Americans tend to "compartmentalize" their friendships, having their "friends at work", "friends at school", a "tennis friend", and so on. Americans often seem very friendly, even when you first meet them. This friendliness does not usually mean that the American is looking for a deeper relationship.
