范文

There are many factors accounting for this phenomenon, but the following ones are the most typical.

The first one is closely related to Chinese booming economy, many foreigners have paid much more attention to China than they did before.

For example, a great number of cross-national corporates have invested their own plants in China. Thus, learning Chinese as well as its related culture has become a necessity for them.

More importantly, Chinese government and related departments have been passionately expanding the influence of Chinese culture globally. For example, a series of forums about Chinese culture have sprung up like mushrooms after rain.

Last but not least, it is reported that more foreign students have chosen Chinese colleges for their further education. Thus, understanding its culture has been a threshold for them.

CASE：青少年无法独立成长

There are many factors accounting for this phenomenon, but the following ones are the most typical.

The first one is related to better economy, majority of children are raised up in a fairly rich and cozy environment, but hardly experience any hardship.

Others may blame for the elementary education.

Family members and teachers attach higher importance to their scores rather than the cultivation of children’ s personality and capability.

Lastly, the only-child policy should be picked out.

This policy causes many kids living in an isolated environment without sufficient communication with their peers.

结果分析

写作思路

Step1：主题句

（采用条件状语从句，即用 if 开头）

Step2：引出结果

话题：自信心

思路分析

主题句：

如果缺乏自信、可能产生的问题

引出结果：

产生心理问题；人际关系问题；职场机会

缺乏自信

If youngsters lack confidence in their life, they are likely to confront with a series of barriers.

写作思路

In the first place, lack of confidence does harm to one’ s mental health, and they may develop some mental diseases, such as depression or even suicide.

In the second place, those people are reluctant to communicate with others, which makes them isolated by others, and this may spoil their relationship.

Last but not least, people who lack confidence usually avoid responsibility which they ought to undertake, and miss many opportunities in their career.

正反对立分析

写作思路

Step1：指出争议

Step2：正方观点+支持理由

Step3：转折+反方观点+支持理由

关键词句

Currently, the whole society has been split by the topic of……(主题词)

- 支持：support\advocate\vote for
- 支持者：supporter\advocate
- 反对：oppose\object to\reject\criticize
- 反对者：opponent\critic
- 转折：however, by contrast, on the contrary, yet, while, still

CASE: 城镇化的利和弊

好处：工作机会多、医疗教育资源多、生活方式多样化

坏处：竞争压力大、环境污染、生活节奏太快生活成本高，人际关系复杂

Currently, the whole society has been split by the topic of urbanization.

Supporters consider that it has a set of benefits. First of all, city has better work opportunities and resources in medical care and education.

Meanwhile, living in cities can enjoy much more diversified life style, compared with living in rural areas.

However, others maintain that urbanization produces a great deal of problems.

For one, there are heavier work pressure and more fast-paced lifestyle, which may be poisonous to one’s body and mind.

For another, compared with living in villages, the living cost in cities is much higher, and interpersonal relationship is much more complicated as well.
